Life Sketches

On August 5, 1930, a marvelous thing happened in Zebulon, Georgia. Theodore Roosevelt Smith the eighth child of Marvin Sidney Smith and Viola (Leeks) Smith was born! Soon after his arrival, his proud parents noticed some concerning health challenges he had. But to their joy, “Granny” came to the rescue. With her knowledge and skills of working with natural remedies, she lovingly cared for her tiny grandson. Theodore thrived and soon appeared to be on the road to excellent health.

It was not long before it became evident that Theodore’s physical, spiritual, mental, social, and intellectual abilities were exceptional. When he was in first grade at Broadway Elementary School, his teacher recognized him as a fast learner. Beyond the basic curriculum, Theo learned skills dealing with electricity, farming, bricklaying, carpentry, woodworking, painting, and public speaking. He loved learning! His hobbies included fishing, baseball, trapping, and hunting. Theodore attended Valley State College and later Zion College and Seminary in Chattanooga, Tennessee, where he received two honorary doctorate degrees.

Raised in a strong Baptist tradition, Theodore was influenced by the deep scriptural curiosity of his father, grandfather, and uncle. He too developed an interest in studying the Word. He and his girlfriend, Kenny, often studied, prayed, and searched the Scriptures together. They joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Ted and Kenny were married in May of 1949. They had four children, Kenneth, Clyde, Elaine and Elizabeth. Kenny passed away in 1991, leaving a void in their family. Sometime afterwards, Theodore and Marion were married, and they continued working in the Lord’s vineyard until her untimely death. He became a full-time Literature Evangelist, finding great joy and success in the Gospel door to door through the printed page. His dedication and hard work led to his ordination and the appointment of leadership in several conferences. He served as Publishing Director of South Central Conference, Southeastern Conference, Southwest Region Conference, South Atlantic Conference, and Associate Publishing Director of Southern Union Conference. He retired in 1999 from the Southern Union Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Following his retirement as a denominational employee, he founded and became the inaugural senior pastor of Mountainside SDA Church.

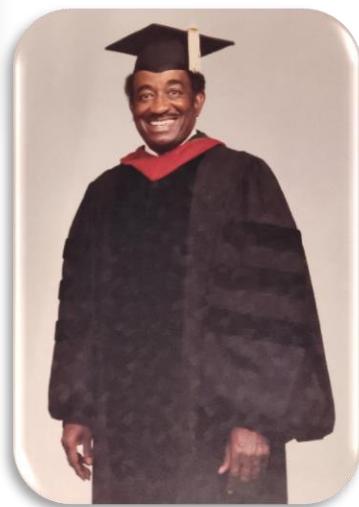

Among those he led to Christ was his own brother Robert, who had originally been sent by their mother to challenge Theodore’s understanding of Scripture. Through the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the “Smith Brothers,” reached the highest level of service in the Seventh-day Adventist church. Ted was among the founding fathers of the Family Health Education Services (FHES).

On November 26, 2005, Theodore and Pennie were united in marriage. They served together as Senior Pastor and Associate Pastor of Mountainside SDA Church, touching many lives until his death on January 22, 2026. He closed his eyes in faith that he would be in the first resurrection.

Preceded him in death were his parents, nine siblings and his son Kenneth Jr.,

Cherishing his memory: His devoted wife, Pennie; his children, Clyde Choice (Donald), Elaine Henderson (Jimmy), and Elizabeth Smith; grandchildren, Ralita Pettway (Kelvin), Renita Tanoh (DeJuan), Jimmy Henderson Jr., Kenneth Smith Jr., and Lauren Smith; 5 great-grandchildren; his brother, Robert Smith (Mervetta); “Bonus children,” Michael and Christine Scott; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

- Teddy's Holy Dance - "He Kept His Promise!!!"

My Big Brother, TED,

You told me years ago, by the grace of God, you wanted to give me three little words: (and then, some) . You told me whatever I wanted to do in life to do whatever I wanted to do "And then Some". In the first grade, I did all that my teacher wanted me to do. In high school, I did all that I could and then some which enabled me to be an honor student. In college I graduated Summa Cum Lade because I did all that my teachers required of me and then some. On every job that I had, I did everything that I was asked to do and then some. Because I followed your advice, I was able to preach and teach the gospel on 6 continents and in 167 countries. Those 3 little words enabled me to become president of the Review & Herald Publishing Association.

~ Robert S. Smith ~

Our Grandfather was an incredible person. Even though he is not with us we will always remember the vacations, dinners, church services, laughter and life lessons that we shared with him. His memory will live on through the lives he has impacted with his messages from God. Although we are all heartbroken about his passing, the sound of his voice and his smile will echo in our memories with laughter and quiet tears. We all love you and miss you. Sleep well,

~ Your Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren and Cousins ~

To Our Dad:

Dad you made life so wonderful for us with love, patience, discipline, laughter, fun and what a family should be. We are so thankful you were a God fearing and praying father.

Thank you for letting God's light shine through you to help us stand for Christ. We will truly miss you, but not for long...until the Trumpet sounds and those asleep in Jesus will rise. We love you Dad.

~ From your girls - Clyde, Elaine, and Elizabeth ~

The Repast:

The Smith Family warmly invites all friends and loved ones to join them for a Repast Fellowship Hour in the Church Fellowship Hall immediately following the service. The meal is graciously provided by the Mountainside Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18
